2. The chairman of the Committee shall be appointed by the Board and should be an independent non-executive director.
3. The company secretary of the Company shall act as the Secretary of the Committee.

Frequency and proceedings of meetings

4. The Committee should meet at least two times per year. Additional meetings should be held as the work of the Committee demands.
5. In addition, the chairman of the Committee may convene additional meetings at his discretion.
6. The quorum for a meeting shall be two members.
7. Proceedings of meetings of the Committee shall be governed by the provisions of Bye-law 126 of the Bye-laws of the Company.

Authority

8. The Committee is granted the authority to investigate any activity within its terms of reference and all employees are directed to cooperate with the Committee.
9. The Committee is authorized by the board to obtain outside legal or other independent professional advice and to invite the attendance of outsiders with relevant experience and expertise if it considers this necessary.

Responsibility

10. The Committee is to serve as a focal point for communication between other directors, the external auditors and the internal auditors as regards their duties relating to financial and other reporting, internal controls, external and internal audits and such other matters as the board determines from time to time.

11. The Committee is to assist the board in fulfilling its responsibilities by providing an independent review and supervision of financial reporting, by satisfying themselves as to the effectiveness of the internal controls of the Company and its subsidiaries (the “Group”), and as to the adequacy of the external and internal audits.

Duties, powers and functions

12. The Committee is to:
- (a) consider the appointment of the external auditors, the performance of the external auditors, the audit fee, and any questions of resignation or dismissal;
  - (b) review with the Group's management, external auditors and internal auditors (if appointed), the adequacy of the group's policies and procedures regarding internal controls (including financial, operational and compliance controls) and any statement by the directors to be included in the annual accounts prior to endorsement by the board;
  - (c) have familiarity with the financial reporting principles and practices applied by the Group in preparing its financial statements;
  - (d) prior to its commencement, review the scope of the external audit, including the engagement letter. The Committee should understand the factors considered by the external auditors in determining their audit scope. The external auditors' fees is to be negotiated by management, and presented to the Committee for review and approval annually;
  - (e) review the annual and interim financial reports prior to approval by the Board, with particular focus on:
    - (i) any changes in accounting policies and practices;
    - (ii) major judgmental areas;
    - (iii) significant adjustments resulting from the audit;
    - (iv) the going concern assumption and any qualifications;
    - (v) compliance with accounting and auditing standards; and
    - (vi) compliance with the listing requirements of The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited and legal requirements;
  - (f) evaluate the cooperation received by the external auditors, including their access to all requested records, data and information; obtain the comments of management regarding the responsiveness of the external auditors to the group's needs; inquire of the external auditors as to whether there have been any disagreements with management which if not satisfactorily resolved would result in the issue of a qualified report on the group's financial statements;

- (g) seek from the external auditors, on an annual basis, information about policies and processes for maintaining independence and monitoring compliance with relevant requirements, including provision of non-audit services and requirements regarding rotation of audit partners and staff;
- (h) discuss with the external auditors any recommendations arising from the audit (if necessary in the absence of management); and review the draft management letter including management's response to the points raised;
- (i) ensure that the Board will provide a timely response to issues raised in the external auditor's management letter;
- (j) review the scope and results of internal audit procedures, ensure coordination between the internal auditors (if appointed) and external auditors and ensure that the internal audit function is adequately resourced and has appropriate standing within the group;
- (k) the engagement of the external auditors to perform non-audit services is in general prohibited except for tax-related services. If a compelling reason exists to engage the external auditors due to their unique expertise in a particular area, the prior approval of the Committee is required;
- (l) discuss with management the scope and quality of systems of internal control;
- (m) apprise the board of significant developments in the course of performing the above duties;
- (n) recommend to the board any appropriate extensions to, or changes, in the duties of the Committee;
- (o) review the findings of internal investigations into any suspected frauds or irregularities or failures of internal controls or infringements of laws, rules and regulations;
- (p) agree with the board the Company's policy relating to the hiring of employees or former employees of the external auditors and monitor the applications of such policy. The Committee will consider whether as a result of such hiring there has been any impairment of the auditor's judgment or independence in respect of an audit;
- (q) review arrangements by which employees, in confidence can raise concerns about possible improprieties in financial reporting, internal control or other matters. The Committee is to ensure proper arrangements are in place for the fair and independent investigation of such concerns and appropriate follow up action;
- (r) consider other topics, as requested by the Board.
